SUMMARY

A probable ammunition storage area is located 4.8 kilometers (km) northeast of Lubny (Figure 1). The installation covers approximately 250 acres and contains 48 probable ammunition storage buildings, 7 support buildings, and 2 small-arms firing ranges (Figures

2 and 3).

The installation was covered by KEY-HOLE missions between [REDACTED]. Comparative analysis reveals the area was occupied during this period. No significant changes are observed.

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATION

Road Service

Secondary all-weather roads provide access to the Lubny-Lokhvista highway.

Ammunition Storage Area

Area F is probably secured and contains 48 probable ammunition storage buildings and 7 support buildings. Track activity indicates light use of this area.

Other Buildings and Facilities

Area H is an area of unidentified activity consisting of a road pattern in the woods. Small scale photography and vegetation preclude identification of the activity.

Small-Arms Firing Ranges

Areas L1 and L2 are 400- by 50-foot small-arms firing ranges. Lack of scarring indicates little use of the ranges.
